12TH SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE WITH INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPATION

Holistic Approach to the Patient

Na Loko 2, Novo mesto, Slovenia,
Thursday, 17 November 2022.

By organising the 12th SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE WITH INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPATION entitled "HOLISTIC APPROACH TO THE PATIENT", the University of Novo mesto Faculty of Health Sciences would like to contribute to knowledge exchange and consolidation of the expertise, and above all, to intensify the efforts for encouraging research in the field of nursing care, health and social problems from the aspect of quality, education and management.

The goals of the conference are:

- presenting the results of the latest research studies in the field of the conference topics;
- strengthening cooperation between Slovene and European experts, as well as schools and faculties in the field of nursing sciences and broader;
- transferring knowledge and experience between practice and the scientific research field.

The central theme of the 12th Scientific Conference is holistic approach to the patient in health and social care from the aspect of quality, responsibility and humanity, in the context of which the following topics will be discussed:

- holistic approach to patients of different age periods;
- treatment and nursing of patients with different chronic and acute diseases;
- integrated health and social care;
- concepts in treating vulnerable groups and people with special needs;
- physiotherapy and movement activity in the patient's comprehensive treatment;
- health ecology and public health;
- ethics and values in health and social care;
- patients' rights and obligations;
- prevention and healthy lifestyle;
- quality and safety in health and social care;
- management in health and social care;
- education and care for maintaining the health of employees;
- communication in health and social care;
- interprofessional and interinstitutional cooperation.

An insight into current trends will be given by plenary guest lecturers, recognised and respected Slovene and foreign experts in the aforementioned fields.

The conference, which will be held in Slovene, Croatian, Serbian and English language, is intended for researchers, higher education teachers and experts from practice in the field of health and social care, as well as for the general public interested in the topics.

Papers will be presented as oral presentations in sessions or posters in poster session. The paper should have no more than two authors. Each author (or co-author) can only submit one paper.

Master's and doctoral study programme students are also welcomed to actively participate in the conference.

Registration and abstract submission:

Registration and abstract submission are performed online, using the following link: https://fzv.uni-nm.si/en/registration_for_authors/.
